Section 2 - Bonus, commission or overtime

Primary income (100%)	Acceptable proof
Bonus, commission or overtime	To use as primary income, amounts must be regular and consistent and not a short term trend. We'll use the lowest monthly payment from the last 3 months' payslips x12. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• If paid monthly, latest 3 months' payslips required.</li><li>• If paid weekly, 4 weeks' consecutive payslips required, along with 1 payslip from each of the previous 2 months identifying the bonus/commission/overtime payment.</li></ul> Where the income isn't supported by the year to date figure, we may reduce the income accordingly. Please record an explanation in the 'General notes' section of Introducer Internet, where there is a valid reason.
Secondary income (70%)	Acceptable proof

Bonus, commission or overtime

Where amounts are regular but inconsistent.

We'll use an average from the last 3 months' payslips x12.

- If paid monthly, latest 3 months' payslips required.
- If paid weekly, 4 weeks' consecutive payslips required, along with one payslip from each of the previous 2 months identifying the bonus/commission/overtime payment.

Where the income isn't supported by the year to date figure, we may reduce the income accordingly. Please record an explanation in the 'General notes' section of Introducer Internet, where there is a valid reason.

Bonus, commission or overtime paid less frequently than monthly e.g quarterly

- 3 payslips showing the last 3 bonus/commission/overtime payments received.

Where the income isn't supported by the year to date figure, we may reduce the income accordingly. Please record an explanation in the 'General notes' section of Introducer Internet, where there is a valid reason.

Annual bonus or commission

- Most recent payslip showing bonus or commission payment; and
- Previous payslip or P60 evidencing the bonus or commission paid in the previous tax year.

Section 3 - Parental leave (maternity and paternity)

- Latest payslip, and
- Last payslip prior to parental leave showing the full salary, and
- Details of lowest income expected during parental leave and if this is insufficient, alternative source of funds to support payments and living costs may be needed (e.g. savings).
- Where an applicant intends to return to work on the same terms as before the start of parental leave, we'll need confirmation of this in the 'General notes' section on Introducer Internet.
- Where an applicant (or either applicant if joint application) will be changing their working pattern following parental leave, we'll need a letter from the applicant's employer confirming their return to work conditions.

- Please make sure that you've included any anticipated childcare costs in non-regular expenditure. Where there will be no childcare costs please provide an explanation including details of alternative arrangements in the 'General notes' section on Introducer Internet

Section 4 - Self-employed income

Where there are unexplained downward trends or sharp increases in the most recent year's trading figures, please give us additional information to tell us why.

Where your client's shareholding in a company, or combined shareholding of your clients is less than 20%, treat as employed. Please refer to the 'Other income types' section for guidance on how to treat dividends.

Section 8 - Foreign nationals

We consider applications from non-UK/non-Irish nationals where the property is for their own use and for immediate occupation for residential applications. These may be subject to full underwriting.

We don't accept applications from foreign nationals holding diplomatic immunity.

Your client must have the permanent right to reside in the UK e.g. pre-settled or settled status or indefinite leave to remain in the UK (ILR) where:

- Income is required for affordability purposes where the LTV exceeds 75% for residential applications, or
- Income is required towards the £25,000 minimum income for Buy to Let applications.

To evidence a client has the right to reside in the UK, one of the following should be obtained and retained on file:

- A visa stamp in a passport (for this purpose only, the passport may be expired), or
- Written confirmation from UK Visas and Immigration/Home Office of ILR in the UK, or
- A share code to prove pre-settled/settled/indefinite leave status. Go to <https://www.gov.uk/view-prove-immigration-status>

Supporting documentation confirming permanent residency (passport, residency card) may be renewable. The timescale should not be viewed as a restriction on the citizen's right to remain.

Further information may be available from <https://www.gov.uk/browse/visas-immigration/settle-in-the-uk>

- If limited bureau data is available, 3 months' bank statements.

Section 9 - Proof of deposit
